

Books

“How to raise an amazing child the Montessori way” by Tim Seldin (2006)

Learn how to build a calm and happy home life based on Montessori school methods. Read about creative activities to help children discover their world-as well as foster independence, concentration, and respect for others.

“Teaching Montessori in the home” by Elizabeth G. Hainstock (1976)

Learn how to set up specific exercises in your home in the areas of practical life, sensorial, reading and writing, and arithmetic. This book has a section on how to make your own equipment.

“Teach me to do it myself” by Maja Pitamic (2004)

This book features activities to explore with your child to develop his or her senses, coordination, language skills, number sense, and science interests.

“Montessori play and learn” by Lesley Britton (1992)

Parents guide to purposeful play from two to six. Valuable tips and insights that help parents and children grow and learn together.

“Montessori Parenting-Unveiling the Authentic Self” by Dr. Jim and Sonnie McFarland (2011)

This book will teach the reader how to implement Montessori philosophy in the home, constructively respond to children’s behavior, be calm and confident with children, enhance children’s authentic nature, help children with inner discipline, compassionately communicate with children, and create environments that enhance children’s natural developmental process.

“The Absorbent Mind” by Maria Montessori (1967/1995)

A classic in education and child development for educators and parents

“Montessori from the Start - The child at home From birth to age three” by Paula Polk Lillard and Lynn Lillard Jessen (2003)

Based on Dr. Maria Montessori's instructions for raising infants, its comprehensive exploration of the first three years incorporates the furnishings and tools she created for the care and comfort of babies. From preparation to clothing and movement, the authors provide guidance for the children.

Websites

Amshq.org (American Montessori Society)

Livingmontessorinow.com

Ageofmontessori.org

Pinterest – search Montessori Home.